Athens, GA 30606

The Athens Area Diaper Bank strives to eradicate diaper need by providing diapers to low-income families in the Athens area, while raising public awareness of diaper need and its impact.

- Diapers cost over $900 every year, a cost that 1 in 3 families struggle with in the US.
- Government assistance programs, like food stamps and WIC, do NOT cover diapers.
- There are over 8,000 children at risk of diaper need in the Athens area.

Diapers Distributed: 271,085
 Diapers donated to us: 71,902
 Children Served: 7,590
 Families Served: 6,024
 Partner agencies: 23

Diapers make a difference...

When families receive diapers from us*...
 ...it improves a child's well-being (4.8 out of 5)
 ...it improves a child's health (4.5/5)
 ...it decreases a family's stress (4.7/4)
 ...it helps a family cope with COVID-19 (4.9/5)

When our partners receive diapers from us...
 ...it helps foster trust with their clients (4.4 out of 5)
 ...it helps further their own mission (4.6/5)
 ...it helps them respond to COVID-19 (4.8/5)
 *As reported by our 2020 partner agencies.

2020 Notable Moments

March: COVID-19 hit, along with unprecedented diaper need. Diaper drives, volunteer shifts, and events are all canceled...but the number of diapers distributed by AADB is doubled.

March-August: AADB diapers get distributed to Clarke County School District families at meal pick-ups.

August: AADB begins a distribution program with Neighborhood Leaders (Family Connection-Communities in Schools), with logistic support from the Athens Cotton Press.

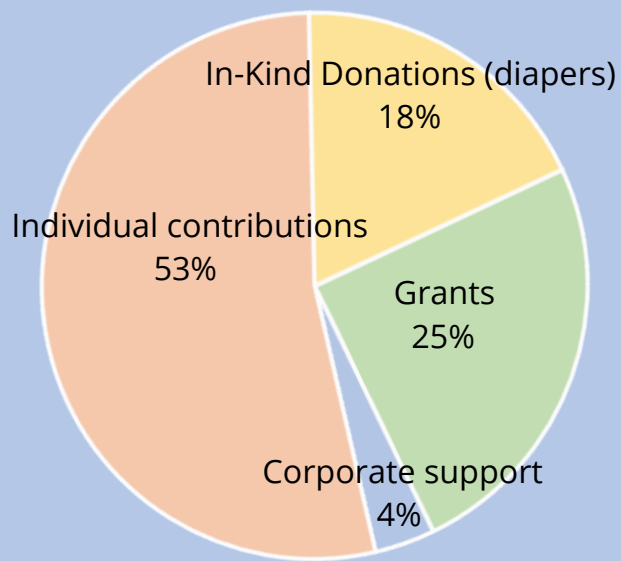

September: Diaper Need Awareness Week brings attention and donations!

December: Donors fill up our Virtual Diaper Tree, and hope fills the air as we plan for 2021.
